

Overview: Marketplace Medicaid/CHIP Periodic Data Matching Stop APTC Notice

As part of Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) Periodic Data Matching (Medicaid/CHIP PDM), the Health Insurance Marketplace (Marketplace) examines available data sources to identify consumers who are enrolled in Marketplace coverage with Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit (APTC) or income-based Cost-Sharing Reductions (CSRs) and Medicaid or CHIP coverage that counts as qualifying health coverage (sometimes called minimum essential coverage - MEC).

This notice is sent to the household contact for a Marketplace application when a someone from their application has been found to be dually-enrolled in Marketplace coverage with APTC or CSRs and Medicaid or CHIP coverage that counts as qualifying health coverage, AND the affected consumer didn't take appropriate action (i.e., update their Marketplace application to reflect that they aren't enrolled in Medicaid/CHIP, or end their Marketplace coverage with APTC/CSRs) by the date indicated in a previous initial warning notice.

This final notice informs the household contact that APTC/CSRs that are being paid on behalf of the affected consumer will end because that consumer didn't respond to a previous initial warning notice by the specified date. Marketplace coverage for that consumer will continue without financial help. That consumer will need to end their Marketplace coverage if they no longer wish to be enrolled in that coverage and pay full cost for their share of the Marketplace plan premium and covered services. If they choose to remain in full-cost Marketplace coverage, they should notify their state Medicaid or CHIP agency of their Marketplace enrollment; they may no longer be eligible for CHIP. For any person not listed in the notice who is still eligible for a Marketplace plan, their coverage will continue and the Marketplace will redetermine their eligibility for APTC/CSRs, if applicable. Taglines in multiple languages are located at the end of the notice for consumers who may require assistance in another language.

Dear [hh_contact_first_name]:

You're getting this notice because the people listed below will no longer get financial help to help pay for their coverage through a Marketplace health plan. They'll still have a Marketplace health plan, but they won't get advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and income-based cost-sharing reductions (CSRs), if applicable, for their share of the Marketplace plan premium and covered services. This change will be effective on [effective date].

- [application_member_names]

If these people don't want to pay full cost for their share of the Marketplace plan premium and covered services, you'll need to end their Marketplace coverage immediately. Note:

Consumers who are enrolled in the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) and choose to remain in full-cost Marketplace coverage may no longer be eligible for CHIP. To learn how to end Marketplace coverage, see the "What should I do next?" section below.

For anyone on the Marketplace plan who isn't listed above, their Marketplace plan will continue and their eligibility for APTC and CSRs will be redetermined. Based on the information you submitted on your application, your household is now eligible for a tax credit of $[maxAPTC] each month, which is $[maxAPTC x 12] for the year. You'll get an updated eligibility notice for the household that will tell you how much APTC/CSRs your household can use to help pay for Marketplace coverage, if applicable. Contact your plan to find out your share of the total premium amount, after this change.

Why is financial help for Marketplace coverage ending?

People enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP that counts as qualifying coverage are ineligible for APTC and CSRs. The Marketplace previously received information from your state's Medicaid or CHIP program saying that the people listed above are enrolled in one of those programs. The Marketplace found that they are also enrolled in Marketplace coverage with financial help.

The Marketplace sent you a notice asking you to either end the Marketplace coverage with APTC/CSRs for the people listed above or update your Marketplace application by [PDM timer end date] to show that those people weren't enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP. Since you didn't take action by your deadline, changes have been made to your household's eligibility for financial help.

The people listed above may choose to continue Marketplace coverage without financial help. If they choose to remain in full-cost Marketplace coverage, they should notify their state Medicaid or CHIP agency of their Marketplace enrollment; they may no longer be eligible for CHIP.

What should I do next?

For each person listed on this notice, if he or she is enrolled in [State Medicaid Program Name] (Medicaid) or [State CHIP Program Name] (CHIP) and wants to end Marketplace coverage, there are two ways to do this:

- Visit HealthCare.gov/medicaid-chip/cancelling-marketplace-plan/ for instructions to end Marketplace coverage online, OR
- Call the Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596. TTY users should call 1-855-889-4325.

If you believe anyone listed above isn't enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP, or you aren't sure if anyone listed above is enrolled in or has been determined eligible for these programs, you may wish to confirm that information with your state Medicaid or CHIP office. You may also refer to instructions below under "What should I do if I disagree with the Marketplace's decision?"

- To find your state Medicaid office: Visit HealthCare.gov/medicaid-chip/eligibility, scroll down to "Apply for Medicaid and CHIP 2 Ways" and select your state from the drop-down menu.
- To find your state CHIP office: Visit insurekidsnow.gov, or call 1-877-543-7669.

Note: Most Medicaid coverage counts as “qualifying health coverage” (also called minimum essential coverage, or MEC), but some forms of Medicaid cover limited benefits (like Medicaid that only covers emergency care, family planning or pregnancy-related services) and aren’t considered qualifying coverage. (For more information on which Medicaid programs are considered qualifying coverage, visit HealthCare.gov/medicaid-limited-benefits/.) Most CHIP coverage is considered qualifying coverage.

If you or someone on your application is enrolled in limited-benefit Medicaid coverage that is not considered qualifying coverage, they may still be eligible for APTC/CSRs to help pay for their Marketplace plan premium and covered services.

What should I do if I disagree with the Marketplace’s decision?

In many cases, you can appeal the Marketplace’s decision about your household’s eligibility for health coverage, including eligibility for APTC and CSRs. You have been sent a final eligibility determination notice containing information about how you may appeal if you think this decision is wrong.
