Marketplace Eligibility Appeal Rights

- If consumers believe there was a mistake or disagree with certain eligibility determinations made by a Marketplace, they have a right to request an appeal.

- This presentation is about appealing to the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Appeals Entity about a Marketplace eligibility determination.

  ➢ Also known as the Marketplace Appeals Center.

- We’ll also briefly discuss some consumer appeal rights from State-based Exchange (SBE) appeals entities.
Marketplace Eligibility Appeal Rights: Appointing an Authorized Representative

- Consumers may appoint someone as their authorized representative to communicate with the Marketplace Appeals Center on their behalf and represent them throughout the process.
- The representative can be a relative, friend, legal counsel, or another trusted spokesperson.
- Consumers must designate their representative in writing and sign the document.
Appealing a Marketplace Eligibility Determination

What determinations can be appealed?

- Eligibility to buy a Marketplace qualified health plan (QHP), including a Catastrophic plan.
- Eligibility for lower costs, including the amount of:
  - Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC).*
  - Cost-sharing reductions (CSRs).
- Eligibility for a Special Enrollment Period (SEP) to enroll in a Marketplace QHP outside the regular Open Enrollment Period (OEP).

*Including eligibility for APTC due to the expanded eligibility thresholds under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, currently extended to PY 2023 through PY 2025 by the Inflation Reduction Act.
Appealing a Marketplace Eligibility Determination (Cont.)

- Eligibility for Medicaid or the Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP) for residents of states that have delegated appeals of certain types of Medicaid and CHIP determinations made by the Federally-facilitated Exchange (FFE) to the Marketplace Appeals Center.

- Eligibility for a hardship or affordability exemption for consumers age 30 or older who wish to purchase a Catastrophic plan.

- Any SBE’s eligibility appeal decision or its decision denying the consumer’s request to vacate the dismissal of their eligibility appeal.
How to Request a Marketplace Eligibility Appeal

How to file a Marketplace appeal:

- Online: Consumers can visit HealthCare.gov/marketplace-appeals/appeal-forms and select their state to submit their appeal request online.

- By fax or mail: Consumers can print and fill out a paper form or write a letter requesting an appeal. They should include their name, address, and the reason for the appeal. If the appeal is for someone else (like their child), they should also include that person’s name. Consumers then fax or mail their paper form or letter to the Marketplace:
  - Fax: 1-877-369-0130
  - Mail: Health Insurance Marketplace®

When an Eligibility Appeal is Received

How does the Marketplace Appeals Center determine if an appeal is valid?

- Timeliness: the request must be received within:
  - 90 days of the notice of the contested Marketplace eligibility determination;
  - 30 days of the date of an SBE notice of appeal decision; or
  - 30 days of notice from an SBE declining to reopen the appeal after it was dismissed by the SBE.
When an Eligibility Appeal is Received (Cont.)

- The request must be about a matter that’s appealable, examples of which are provided on slides 4 and 5.
- The appeal must be requested by a consumer or by an authorized representative appointed in writing by the consumer.
- If the appeal request doesn’t meet these requirements, the consumer will get a notice explaining why the request is invalid and how to fix the problem and resubmit the appeal.
After the Consumer Files an Appeal

If the appeal is valid, consumers who appeal (appellants) get a letter from the Marketplace Appeals Center that:

- Acknowledges receipt of their appeal.
- Includes their appeal number, which uniquely identifies their case.
  - Consumers should write their appeal number on any documents they submit to the Marketplace Appeals Center.
- Provides a description of the appeals process.
- Includes instructions for submitting additional material for consideration, if necessary.
Types of Resolution

- Informal Resolution
  - If possible, the Marketplace Appeals Center will try to resolve the appeal based on the available information.
  - This decision will be binding if the consumer is satisfied.

- Hearing
  - In some cases, the appeal may go straight to a hearing.
  - If the consumer is dissatisfied with the informal resolution results, a hearing may be requested.
Informal Resolution of Eligibility Appeals

The Marketplace Appeals Center works with appellants to resolve eligibility appeals informally.

- The Marketplace Appeals Center:
  - Reviews facts and evidence submitted by the appellant and those that are available from the Marketplace.
  - Sometimes contacts appellants by phone or mail.
  - Sends an Informal Resolution Notice that describes proposed resolution and decision.

- If appellant is satisfied, the appeal decision follows unless appellant voluntarily withdraws the appeal.

- Appellants who aren’t satisfied may request a hearing.
Marketplace Eligibility Appeal Hearing

Hearings are more formal.

- Consumers will receive notice of the scheduled hearing in writing at least 15 days prior to the hearing date unless:

  - The appellant requests an earlier hearing date (and one is available) and waives their right to 15 days’ written notice.

  - A hearing date sooner than 15 days is necessary to process an expedited appeal as agreed to by the appellant.

- Hearings are conducted by telephone.
- Hearings are presided over by a Federal Hearing Officer.
- Appellants and any witnesses are under oath.
Eligibility Appeal Decisions

- After the hearing concludes, the Federal Hearing Officer carefully considers all evidence and testimony of the appellant and any witnesses.

- The Federal Hearing Officer issues the eligibility appeal decision.
  - The decision is mailed to the appellant within 90 days from the receipt date of the appeal request, as administratively feasible.
  - The decision is final and binding, although judicial review may be an option (as state and federal law allows).

- The consumer must follow the instructions on the decision letter to ensure implementation.
- If the decision finds the contested eligibility determination was incorrect when it was made by the Marketplace, the consumer may be able to have the decision implemented retroactively based on the date when the consumer received the incorrect determination.
Eligibility Appeal Decisions: Retroactive Effectuation

As a part of retroactive effectuation of eligibility appeal decisions:

- A Marketplace plan may owe an appellant a refund if:
  - The appellant had paid Marketplace plan premiums to the plan before the appeal was decided; and
  - They’re now eligible for a larger premium tax credit and/or lower copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles as a result of the appeal.*

  OR

- An appellant may owe money to their Marketplace plan if:
  - They’re now enrolling in Marketplace coverage for an earlier date; or
  - They haven’t paid their past premium balance(s).

*Note: The appeal does NOT consider or resolve any of these monetary amounts.
